FEE FORM – INSURANCE/SELF-PAY

FEES

Failed Appointments –Should you fail to attend an appointment (defined below), you will be charged a Failed Appointment Fee. Insurance Clients will be charged the total amount Solutions Counseling would have received for your kept appointment. If we file insurance for you, the amount will consist of your portion as well as the portion the insurance company would have paid. This Failed Appointment Fee must be paid before you can schedule another appointment. A failed appointment is defined as an appointment missed and/or canceled within 24 hours of said appointment. If you arrive late for an appointment, you will be seen at the therapist's discretion. A Failed Appointment Fee will be applied if you are deemed too late to be seen.

Rates – Rates for sessions are as follows, unless specifically approved. Any services beyond therapy sessions have an additional fee attached. If you are required to pay for sessions to meet a deductible or required to pay a percentage of your session, you will not be charged more than your insurance rates. Below is a list of the more common fees per service. A full Fee Schedule with service descriptions can be provided upon request.
